Energy efficiency

In the heart of Héviz, a premium-quality smart home awaits its new owner. This 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom property underwent a complete renovation in 2022 and offers modern comforts and cutting-edge features. Equipped with an air-to-water heat pump, air conditioning, underfloor heating, ceiling cooling, a water softener, and an automated irrigation system, it provides exceptional convenience and energy efficiency. The spacious, bright interiors and a private garage further enhance the comfort of this home. Its central location ensures easy access to all key amenities while maintaining a peaceful environment. This property is an ideal choice for those seeking a modern, energy-efficient, and comfortable home. For more information, please contact our sales representatives.
