Energy efficiency

This beautifully located property is thoughtfully designed and carefully preserved, making it perfectly suited to the needs. A wood-burning stove has been integrated into the spacious living and dining area, providing cozy warmth. From the living room, a staircase leads to the upper floor where the bedrooms are located. The house features a generous terrace with a stunning panoramic view – the perfect place to relax or enjoy time with friends and family. The property sits on a large plot of land, offering the opportunity to create a vegetable garden and providing additional space for recreation or gardening. Several storage rooms and an outbuilding are also available, ensuring ample storage space. This is an ideal holiday home, but it is also perfectly suited as a permanent residence.
